LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Green peas, fresh potatoes, new beets, and mint-julips, are popular in Memphis at this season.

-The revival at the first Baptist hurch continues with unabated interest and additional good results. * I-Charles Arland, the negro burglar captured in Benson's music store, was yesterday committed to jail by Judge -Yesterday the chamber of commerce had a large and most interesting meeting, much business being disposed of in -John Johnson was arrested vestertay on the charge of receiving goods under false pretences, and carrying concealed weapons. -A wagon-mule yesterday rammed its head through the glass of a streetear window, for which the driver of the brute was arrested.

-A new postcflice has been located at Wibur, in this county, five and a half miles from thecity, on the Paducah rail-road. Joshua W. Mewborn was appointed postmaster. -West Court street was yesterday cleaned of much filth, thanks to the board of health, which is making a good beginning, and will continue the commendable work begun. -The police last night arrested John Miller for shooting in the corporation. The report of a pistol was heard on the pluff, near Front and Court streets, and it is rumored that Miller, meeting three egroes, knocked one of them down, and when they fled, shot at them. -St. Patrick's day is to-day, and will be duly observed by the Irish societies of this city. To night the Knights of Innisfail give a grand ball at Cochran hall. The Societa di Unione e Fraellanza Italiana will join in the preces sion to-day, and their band will conribute to the music of the occasion. -A report reaches here that the levees at Harkenrodes, Star Landing, DeSoto-Front, and along Tunica county, Mississippi, have broken, and that the adjacent lands are flooded. A large volume of water is rushing through lake Comarn and Horn lake, the latter having been exempt from such visita-tations since 1867. Much damage it is feared, will result to planters. -The circuit court of DeSoto county, Mississippi, has acquitted Hood on indictment for murdering Mackanineh in 1868. A verdict of not guilty was also returned in the case of Beal, indicted for the alleged murder of a negro several months ago. A negro politician camed Hillsman, arrested on three indictments for perjury and subornation of perjury, is now in jail, and will proba-bly be tried this week. Hillsman was a candidate for the shrievalty of DeSoto county at the last election.

-In the first circuit court yesterday the motion on the school bond of ten housand dollars in behalf of the district school directors vs. A. Woodward, absconding county trustee, and his sureties Sam Folwell and J. J. Busby, ludge Heiskill gives a judgment against the defendents for the full amount of the bond. The motion against Woodward and his sureties on the fifty thou sand dollars general bond has not as yet been argued. The bondsmen are W. H. Cherry and J. H. Edmonds.

-This afternoon the members of the colored Sunday-school union open at Zion hall, on Beale street, a grand sociable and festival, the proceeds of which will go to the purchase of a banner for the organization. This entertainment, to continue through the present week, is a laudable one, deerving the generous support of the colored citizens, and it will be conducted in a pleasant manner, the music being furnished by the Benevolent Society band. Colored people should give this entertainment a good attendance.

steamer St. Francis that a serious disurbance occurred near Commerce, Mississippi, last Saturday, in which several negroes were wounded, one seriously. seems that a colored magistrate, named Turk, ordered the arrest of another man and brother who had interfered with or altered his docket. The officer having the matter in charge summoned a posse to go with him and make he arrest, but upon their arrival at the residence of the guilty citizen, were fired upon by a party of his friends, with the result stated above. We could not learn the names of all the parties engaged in -The criminal court yesterday sentenced to three years imprisonment, James Duffy and John Kelly, on a plea of guilty to indictments for garrotting John B. Talbot on the levee in this city, the fifteenth of last December. John B. Talbot was a school-teacher from Cape Girardeau, Missouri, and was going to the Little Rock depot to take the train for Forrest City, Arkansas, when the above named men, in company with John Reynold, garroted and robbed him of eighteen dollars. The robbery oc-curred in the afternoon, and the man Reynold, who knocked Taibot down, was last Friday convicted of robbery and sentenced to fifteen years in the State prison. The three robbers were arrested by Officers John Dougherty and Scanlan, shortly after the crime had been committed. -Speaking of Professor Mueller's grand dansante soirce next Thursday evening, the Ledger says: "Professor Mueller's soirce dansante, in which the 'German' will be the attraction, comes off at the Memphis club hall next Thursday evening. To-night and to-morrow night the professor will give re-PROJECT Apply at this office. de27 morrow night the processor will give result of the Cran there are thirty-cent meal.

tenche, notwithstanding his pedal obstructions, will lead the 'German,' and Colonel Tracey, of the same journal, will swing corners as of yore." become respectably graceful.
"Brenan'Slide" is not popular. —A very charming lady, verging on thirty-five, and yet unmarried, has seen fit to write us the following communication: MEMPHIS, March 16, EDITORS APPEAL-Knowing that the "Memphis Hop" has been successful, and satisfied that the "Tracey Fling" will likewise be equally as popular, my interest suggests the most graceful of all dances, namely: The "Lightfoot Step," and the "Rooster Jig." These dance being both easy and graceful, a child could acquire proficiency in them. They will doubtless supercede the "Memphis Hop," "Tracey Fling," and "Brenan Glide." Yours, truly, OLD HUNDRED.

This young (?) lady, who is one of Professor Mueller's most accomplished pupils, has douttless played "hopscotch" with a light foot while in the traces of outh's sports, and fought roosters with wild violets-amusements not uncommon to children, and pleasant to be re-called when the maiden reaches that age where she can conscientiously sign nerself "Old Hundred."

well-known firm of Van Winkle Bros., No. 31 Jefferson street, the model saoon of the city, returned yesterday on the steamer Pauline Carroll, from a business visit to New Orleans, where he made most extensive purchases for the spring and summer trade. The stock rchased embraces the finest of wines, ordials and liquors. Conspicuous among the first may be named the celeper Hiedsieck," "Krug," and the famous Widow Cliquot." In addition to all these splendid vintages there will always be found on hand, in bottles and on draught, Younger's Scotch ale, Guinness's magnificent Dublin porter and Bass's exquisite pale ale, all directly out of bond, and in the very finest cendiion. The stock of domestic liquors emraces the well-known "Force" and "Westmoreland" whiskies and Walk-er's favorite St. Louis ales. Give 'John" and "Frank" a call and judge for yourself.

PERSONAL.

DR. SILAS T. GILBERT, a prominent hysician and highly esteemed citizen f this city, died at his residence in south Memphis yesterday afternoon after a short illness. He was a son of Dr. Samuel Gilbert, the celebrated cancer doctor, and one of the most successful practitioners of his day, whose name is familiar to all the old citizens of Memphis.

SAM WELLS, the newsman on the Little Rock railroad, eclipsed himself yesterday by furnishing the APPEAL with copies of Little Rock papers, of Monday morning-laying them on our table at half past twelve o'clock on the day of publication.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Theater. Last night there was a good attendance at the Theater to greet Mr. Francis with the Ledger's Fred Brenan, whose legs being as stiff as a steamboat's jack-staff, and whose resilier ever meritorious and interesting, is somewhat below the real merits and talents of actors, who ranks as an artist in New York where his appearance has always secured warm praise and high indorsement. Fromt he first to the last Mr. Bangs, whether as "Jean LeCroix," the soldier and pensioner at Stras-burg in 1791, as "The Deputy" in Paris in 1793, or as the "Old Veteran" returned home after long years of exile, nlisted the sympathies and rivetted the attention of the audience, whose appreciation was evidenced by frequent encores. He is an easy, graceful actor, free from rant, natural and thoroughly realistic. He was miserably supported, and the setting of the piece was very faulty. But this, we hope, will be remedied to-day, and to-night we shall have a better and more satisfactory performance. formance. Mr. Bangs is a good actor, and cannot fail to draw well during the Grand Masquerade Ball. The grand masquerade ball to be given o-morrow (Wednesday) night at the Grand Central hotel (formerly the Com-mercial) promises to be a fine affair. A large number of tickets have already been disposed of, and the prospect of a crowd is very good at present. The best music in the city has been engaged to give full enjoyment to the dancers. The hall has been carefully prepared and decorated, so as to give zest to the merry scene. The whole affair is in charge of MR. JOHN VAN WINKLE, of the gentlemen who are thoroughly au fait as to the management of such affairs. The outlook at present presages a happy, merry, joyous time to all participants.

Prof. Mueller's Soirce Dansante. To-day Prof. Mueller gives the last renearsal for his grand soirce dansante at the Memphis club hall, next Thursday night. Yesterday's rehearsal was very largely attended, and most satisfactory; and the entertainment brated "Carte Blanche," the premier vintage of the Isle of France, the "Stratzburgh Sparkling Moselle," a most recherche wine, with all the other favorite brands, including genuine "Pipels and the entertainment actory, and the entertainment that the premier vintage of the Isle of France, the most recherche our citizens have ever enjoyed. of increased demand for Mansfield's Hungarian Balsam of Life. It is especially gratitying because it shows that the popularity of merit is permanent, whilst that produced simply by advertising, or other artificial means, is evanescent. During the quarter of a century during which Mansfield's Hungarian Balsam of Life has been used as an expectorant and lung medicine, hundreds of so-called cough medicines have been thrust upon the public, have been given fictitious reputation, have had their day, and sunk rapidly into well-deserved oblivion. In all this time the Hungarian Balsam of Life has been sent quietly throughout the land on its errand of mercy. Letters constantly received describe it as "The Consumptive's Last Hope," "The Family Friend," "The Great Expectorant," and by other terms, showing the high appreciation in which it is held by those who have used it We can only say we are proud of such constantly renewed evidence of its virtues, and that it will always be kept fully up to its present high standard of excellence, so that it may at all times be depended upon as being positively the very best remedy for all ailments
